“ Always known to me as Momma Weems, my heart goes out to her family. She was such a treasure and someone I could talk to about anything. When I would visit from Florida I always made it a point to come see her because I thought the world of her. Her kindness, warm heart and wonderful spirit was always a breath of fresh air. One of my mother's dearest friends, I'm sure they are catching up on a lot of lost time together. May the thoughts of all that loved her be a comfort to you at this time of grieving. The Lord just brought another Angel home. My deepest condolences to the Weems family.

“ I had a chance to visit with Mrs Weems a few weeks ago while visiting the Eastern Shore, thanks to my niece Susie LeCompte. I remember Mrs Weems for her kind heart and friendly manor and a good friend of my Mother and Father. I know she will be missed, but as my husband just said "I bet Her and your Mother will have a lot to talk about". Much love to you Mrs Weems, and your family. Mel and Susan LeCompte Marshall.

“ I miss her so much already. She meant so much to me. She meant so much to everyone. She was a beautiful, kind woman, and she loved my Poppop (her brother). It's just not the same without her. But I'm glad she's with Jesus, and Poppop, and the rest who left us. We'll see them one day too. I love you Aunt June. Miss you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us. "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
