The Steinbruck's were so saddened to hear about the passing of your dad. I have fond memories of the wonderful meals he planned for the soccer team and how much he enjoyed watching you on the field. He was always so kind and welcoming to Claire and I will not forget that. Love, Julie

“ To the Barcheski family: Michael and I are so very saddened at hearing of the passing of Justin. We were just talking about all of our friends -- especially those from our early years in Laurel. My first memory of that time is of little Justin riding his bicycle toward me (with Devra in carriage at 2 months old) to tell me that we were neighbors and he had a little baby sister and that I needed to meet his Mom and Dad. Justin was the cutest little boy ever! I am sorry that I did not get to know him as the wonderful, warm man he grew up to become from evidence of the comments on this site. My deepest sympathy to all his family and wishes for a peaceful eternity. Our love to all! -- Sally, Michael, Devra and Jenna Hardy

“ I saw Justin the Wednesday before he passed at Rustico, It was the first time i had seen him since summer (too busy out slaying the big ones). He gave me crap about not tagging him in my Facebook post and I told him that would never happen again as long as I played there, and we hugged and I told him I loved him, and Im so glad that we had our last moments on that note, and you are eternally tagged buddy, Love you so much bud, You were one of the most loyal, caring family men I have ever met. I am so sorry for your loss Michi

God bless you, Michi, and your beautiful children. I was blessed to have met Justin, and all of you at his 40th birthday party, My sister Chris brought me along, and you all treated me like family. You were all so welcoming, and kind, and Justin was the perfect gracious host. I left there that day feeling grateful to have spent the day with you all, at your lovely home (and ate tons of fabulous food, cooked by Chef Justin), I was a bit jealous of Linda, have been blessed with such great kids, and grandkids. What a great bunch. Justin will be sorely missed. I am so sad for your tragic loss. I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ Justin was truly a good person with a big heart. In the brief time I knew him what I remember and enjoyed most about him, were his frequently spoken words in casual conversation which expressed his love and admiration for his family and friends.

He loved you all very much and I am deeply saddened for your loss.

Justin I was so sad to hear the terrible news. I'm sending you this helmet in memory of a true Redskins fan, as you witnessed the cowgirls getting a beat down by the Redskins in Dallas, such a proud moment. You will deeply be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. RiP
