“ Many memories of fun gatherings with Karen and Tom at his parents' house when they came back for reunions, and then, years later, seeing them at Heron Point where Tom's and my mom had moved. Always enjoyed Karen's ever-present wry sense of humor! Louie and I send deep sympathy to Tom and all the family.

“ Always think of Karen around the holidays. She was always so thoughtful and kind. We will miss her. And she was very brave and amazing. I was so impressed with her at the last cousins' lunch. Karen was truly remarkable. Love and condolences to Tom, to her brother and sisters, and to her many friends and family who loved her so much.
