“ To the Maule Family: Our deepest sympathy and prayers are with your family in the loss of your mother. I knew your mother and dad very well. Mr. Bill and my father were in the Masonic Lodge in Centreville and your mother was a wonderful lady. Hoping the comfort of others will make this difficult time much better for you. In God's love, Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville, Md.##imported-begin##Lynda Palmatary##imported-end##

“ Going home will never be the same for me. I was fortunate to be a part of the Maul family for as long as I can remember. My dad used to take me to see Mr. Russell as a baby and I grew up knowing Robbie and having a teenage crush on him. Later I became best buds with Wayne, loving and playing with Missy, Sarah Bear, and Davy, watching them grow into the beautiful grown ups that they are today. My trips back home usually included a visit and lunch with Kitty and Bill. Mr. Bill danced with at my wedding, since my own father had passed. They were very special to me and included me in their lives as if I was family and I belonged to them. I will forever miss them all and take comfort in the thought that Robbie now has them by his side. Until we meet again - I love you with All My Heart. “ I had the wonderful pleasure of meeting Ms. Kitty at the Hospice Center. I am a hospice volunteer and spent as much time as I could with this lovely lady.

She was very special to me. She talked about all of her family. It was obvious how much she loved you all.

Many blessings to each of you.###imported-begin##Judy Anderson###imported-end##
