

Katherine "Kay" Ann Miller

October 2, 1932 - May 26, 2025

Katherine Ann Miller, (Kay), born October 2, 1932, lost her long battle with Alzheimer's on May 26, 2025. She was 92. She passed peacefully with Tom, her loving husband of 72 years, her son Tom and her youngest sister Ruth by her side.

She was born in Philadelphia, raised her family in Croydon, Pa until moving with her husband Tom, to Fairlee, Md. Kay & Tom had been together since they were 13 years old (80 years!!) and married at 20 years old. In 2015, Kay "retired" from her boat canvas business after 57 years. She was self-taught, extremely talented, and loved not only by her many customers, but by anyone lucky enough to know her. Kay & Tom spent their lifetime together enjoying their love of boating, especially traveling the Chesapeake Bay in their boat. They were best friends, always together, almost literally "joined at the hip".

Kay was preceded in death by her daughter Linda, son Richard (Rick), 4 sisters – Elsie, Claire, Geri, & Helen, and her grandson Tommy. She is survived by her devoted husband Tom, her youngest sister Ruth, son Tom (Sharon), daughter-in-law Diana, grandchildren Kevin (Kelly), Nicholas (Alex), Ryan (Sarah), Kelly, Katie (Dustin), several great-grandchildren and great-nieces & great-nephews.

“ I visited Miss Kay during her stay at whispering pine as a volunteer for hospice. Miss Kay and I had a lot of smiles together ..we sang as a group old gospel hymns and before our visits were done miss Kay was putting her heart and soul into the music. When is see her if sing out to her you are my sunshine and she would smile. I knew than she remembered me. Xoxoxo she was a blessing to me .. as she was for everyone. Xoxo

“ We were so fortunate to have known Kay. She was a lovely lady, so sweet and talented. She gave me (Rich) many good tips on sewing canvas. What a gem. God Bless her soul.
