

Kathleen Marie Hoyt

August 9, 1943 - October 10, 2024

Kathleen Marie Hoyt of Crumpton, passed away on October 10, 2024, in Centreville Md.

Kathleen was born on August 9, 1943, to Lester and Rachael Walrath in Worcester, NY. After her husband completed college, Kathleen relocated from New York to Iowa. In the 1970s, they settled in Centreville. Following her divorce, she moved to Easton, and in the fall of 1998, she made her way to Crumpton. Kathleen had a passion for cooking, crafts, sewing, reading, and traveling.

Kathleen met Lenard while residing in Easton. In the late 1980s, they relocated to Florida, where they managed condos until 1998. Afterward, they returned to the Eastern Shore in Crumpton, MD. Kathleen was an active member of the Crumpton Volunteer Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary and the VFA Auxiliary.

Kathleen is survived by two daughters: Julie Vari (Joe) from Middletown, DE, and Traci Back of Middletown. She is also mourned by her son T.R. Davenport (Chris) from Georgia, along with a stepdaughter, Sherri Ledden (Bill) of Georgia, and a stepson, John Silks (Diane) from Aberdeen. Kathleen leaves behind three sisters, Sally Walrath of Florida, Mildred Plumb of New York and Patti Vogal Pollock of New York. Her remarkable legacy includes six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held on November 8th at 1pm at Crumpton

Cemetery.

In Lieu of flowers please make donations to the Millington Food Bank.
