

Kathleen Bottomley Landskroener

July 8, 1926 - November 25, 2017

Kathleen Bottomley Landskroener passed away peacefully in the comfort and quiet of her home on November 25, 2017.

She was born in Camden, NJ, on July 8, 1926, the third of seven children of Gordon Bottomley and Constance Sharpe Bottomley of Merchantville, NJ. She was 91 years old.

Kathy married Ted Landskroener on November 1, 1947, and they recently celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary. The couple moved to Chestertown in 1949 when Ted joined his father, Clarence, and brother, Smitty, in a new business, Delmarva Sash and Door. The couple settled for a while in an apartment on Water Street, and Kathy's open, warm personality quickly won over the residents of downtown Chestertown.

Kathy gave birth to a daughter, Nancy, on May 6, 1950. Nancy was the first of five children. She was followed in the next ten years by the arrival of Chris, Jim, David, and John. After Nancy's birth, the Landskroeners moved to Waterview Lane at Country Club Estates, where Kathy spent her time raising a house full of children among almost a dozen other families in similar, blissfully chaotic circumstances.

For almost thirty years, Kathy was a devoted mother and homemaker, yet she became active with volunteer work in the Chestertown community, most notable working many hours a week at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital Auxiliary and The Nearly New Shop in downtown Chestertown.

Growing up with one sister and five brothers, Kathy was an active athlete in her youth and, as an adult, enjoyed playing golf at Chester River Yacht and Country Club and bowling at the Queen Anne's Bowling Lanes in a Ladies League for many years. After her children had grown and established homes and families of their own, Kathy discovered a love of travel. In her sixties and seventies, she visited places all over the globe, including Australia, New Zealand, and Iceland. But her favorite destination was the United Kingdom, birthplace of her mother, and she returned many times to Ireland, her most-loved destination.

Kathy was predeceased by brothers Gordon, Jim, and Howland. She is survived by a sister, Nancy, and brothers, Don and Bill; her husband Ted; her five children, nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

The family will be welcoming visitors at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newman Funeral Home on Friday, December 1, from 4 to 6 p.m. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, December 2, at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 10 a.m. Parking will be available at the Kent County Courthouse.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company, 211 Maple Avenue, Chestertown, MD.

“ John John, I remember complaining about how cold my bedroom was at St. Timothy's one winter. Your MOM came back the next day with a beautiful twin wool blanket for me. I still have that blanket even though it's too heavy for Texas winters. What a thoughtful gift.

“ Dear Mr. Ted and All the Landskroener Family:

George and I were so saddened by the news of Kathy. Your family and ours had so many good times and all the memories will not be forgotten.

Sending loads of prayers and hugs to get through this difficult family time. Please know Kathy will be watching over you as your angel but they probably are all catching up in Heaven with her and no she is in no pain.

With such a beautiful and large family lean on each other and keep the memories close at heart.

*Love,
George and Candy
