

Kathleen Elizabeth Foley

March 16, 2006

Kathleen Elizabeth Foley of Whitefish, Montana, died at the Kalispell Regional Medical Center in Kalispell, Montana on Thursday, March 16, 2006. She was 45.

Born on August 31, 1960 in Washington D.C. she was the daughter of Judith Madole of St. Michaels, Md; and Maurice Foley of Great Cacapon, W.Va. After graduating from the Stone Ridge Country Day School of the Sacred Heart, she then attended Skidmore College, where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature. An accomplished equestrian, she was a member of the Potomac Pony Club, and the Skidmore College Intercollegiate Riding Team. Katy's love of animals and the outdoors brought her to the state of Montana, where she and her companion Doug Bailey owned several horses and dogs. Katy taught horseback riding to children and adults. Katy loved people and strived to help those less fortunate than herself. She established a career in social work with the New York Department of Social Services and the Salvation Army. She also pursued graduate studies in social work while living in New York City.

In addition to her parents and her companion, Katy is survived by a brother, Kyle Foley of Annandale, Va; two sisters, Colleen Foley Walsh of Rockville, Md; and Erin Foley Crouch of Easton, Md; she is also survived by seven nieces and nephews.

A Funeral Liturgy will be celebrated at 11:00AM on Friday, March 24, 2006 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Cordova, Md.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Talbot County Humane Society P.O. Box 1143 Easton, Md. 21601 or to The Arc of Northern Virginia 100 North Washington Street, Suite 234, Falls Church, VA 22046.

Arrangements are by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home P.A. Easton, Md.
