“ *On behalf of the members of the Maryland State Police Alumni Association I would like to extend our deepest regrets to the Harris family. Personally, I knew Mrs. Harris from my younger days as a Trooper at the Annapolis Barrack, and working for her husband. She was a very nice lady, who was married to a really great man. “ I knew her as "Miss Sue" and she made the best Iced Tea...only don't tell my mom. She'd be crushed. Think it was the mint she added. Thanks

“ We are so sad to hear of Aunt Sue's passing. We loved her so much and always looked forward to visiting her when we went to see family in Easton from San Diego. I remember going to the Robert Morris Inn and having lunch with her and the Oxford Girls. Blessings to all her family. Love Jim and Cat Forrerst

Aunt Sue, was a very loving woman. I wish that I got to see her more than I did. I know that she's out of pain now, and happy to be with her parents, brothers, and sisters, and husband too.

“ I trmember when Aunt Sue still lived in Severna Park, and I was a little boy still, and I would visit her some with my mom, and I would catch fire flies in her back yard. That is still a great memory that I have of Aunt Sue. I love you Aunt Sue.

Thinking of all of you at this sad time. I had the pleasure of being one of Miss Sue's caregivers in her home and have many fond memories of her and of our trips to Oxford on Sundays when I took her to church. She was such a very sweet lady.
