

Kathryn Anne Thomson

September 26, 1942 - June 30, 2019

Kathryn Ann Thomson, “Miss Kay,” age 76, died at UMSMC at Easton on June 30, 2019, in the presence of her family. She is a 24-year survivor of breast cancer, having lost her valiant battle with a series of strokes. She bid her good-bye in the arms of her husband, Donald C. Thomson, to whom she had been married for 57 years.

Born September 26, 1942, in Annapolis, MD, she was the daughter of the late James F. Small, Sr., and Kathryn Sarah Powers Small. Kay was at various times a Cub Scout leader and assistant grade school teacher, a decorator, and a clothing store clerk. She enjoyed knitting and needle work, cooking, tending to her flowers, travel and genealogy research. She especially enjoyed spending time with her family.

In addition to her husband, Kay is survived by her four children, Mark A. Thomson of Great Mills, MD, Barry E. Thomson (Debra) of Easton, MD, Laura M. Ranalli of Batavia, NY, and Daniel E. Thomson (Elise) of Grasonville, MD; daughter in-law, Katherine E. Thomson of Dunkirk, MD; and son in-law, Thomas A. Ranalli of Batavia, NY; six grandchildren, Stephanie, Jessica, Cara Mia, Matthew, Ruthie and Portia; sister, Jamie Woods (Rick); and brother, James F. Small, Jr. (Kelly).

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, July 10, at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 10 a.m. Interment will be held privately at Glen Haven Memorial Park in Glen Burnie, MD.

“ *Dear Don and Family,
I was so sorry for you to hear of Kay’s passing. She was a fighter from the beginning and a testament to strength in our breast cancer support group in Annapolis. I enjoyed you both so much and know you will feel lost with out her in your daily life. She is and will always be with you as part of who you are and you will carry her with you every day. I’m so glad you have your family that she so dearly loved. Wishing you days of peace and healing.
With love,

“ To the Thomson family,
I'm so very sorry and sad to hear of your loss. I always felt welcome in your home. I have fond memories of spending a great deal of my teen years in your home. Your mom was wonderful to me. She fed me and cared for me. She was really a second much needed mother to me in those years. I have very fond memories of all you guys and of your home. I will miss Kay.
