“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. Kay is a very special lady. I am in the ladies auxiliary and I took both Ms. Kay and Ms. Jo to play bingo on many occasions. I loved her dearly. I am going to miss her very much. If I can do anything for you please let me know.

“ We are so sorry for your loss and send our deepest sympathy to your family and friends. We were truly blessed in knowing your mom who was such a true friend to us over the years...so much so that we always felt like we were family. We'll miss her very much but know she is now in a better place with her beloved Bill.##imported-begin##Manuel "D" and Judy De La O##imported-end##

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the Zepp Family in the loss of your mother Kay. Everytime I would go pass her house I would blow my horn and she would wave. When I would be going to work early in the a.m. Kay would be outside weeding her flower beds. I would say to myself boy she is always on the go. I will miss her!##imported-begin##Phyllis E.
