

Kay Bradley Harrison

April 23, 1936 - September 25, 2017

Kay Bradley Harrison, 81, of Hebron, MD, passed away on September 25, 2017, in Salisbury, MD.

Kay was born in Easton, MD, to Allen and Gladys Bradley on April 23, 1936. She graduated Easton High School, and she married her childhood sweetheart, George Heller Harrison of Tilghman Island. They were married for over 60 years. She graduated from Salisbury State Teachers College and is a former Miss Salisbury. Her favorite job before she retired was with Peninsula Plastic Surgery as a receptionist for 10 years. She is preceded in death by her parents.

Kay Bradley Harrison is survived by her husband, George Heller Harrison; her son, George Allen Harrison of Newport News VA; and her daughter and son-in-law, Tina Harrison Perrotta and Dr. Vincent Perrotta of Salisbury; her daughter-in-law, Michelle Housman Harrison; as well as her brother and sister in-law, her dearest friends, Kit and Marie Bradley of Easton. Kay is also survived by her beautiful grandchildren that gave her so much joy, Taylor Harrison, J.B. Harrison, and William Harrison of Salisbury, Christopher Perrotta of Columbia SC, Nicholas Perrotta of Baltimore MD, Julia Perrotta, Stephen Perrotta and Joseph Perrotta of Salisbury; and her beloved, Cricket will also miss her greatly.

Kay continues to give even in death. She has donated her body to science. A memorial service will be held Wednesday, October 18, at 3 p.m., St. Marks Methodist Church in Easton. The Rev. James Michael will be presiding.

In lieu of flowers, you may make a donation in Kay's memory to La Merced, Inc. (Medical Mission), 314 W Carroll St., Salisbury, MD 21801.

The family of Kay Bradley Harrison wishes to extend their sincere thanks to all the providers and staff that assisted Kay at PRMC during her "Comfort Care."
