“ For days now, I’ve been trying to find words to adequately express how heartbreaking this is. I ran into Eric last summer after having not seen him for a long time. Many years ago, Eric and Bryan were the stars of my sister’s wedding, tearing up the dance floor like no one else could - a moment captured in many pictures that my family still talks about 25 years later! When I saw him again, he was the exact same guy that I remembered and embraced me in a hug that I will treasure. He sent me a message the very next day, asking for a picture of my dad’s workboat so he could make him a model of it! His thoughtfulness and generosity floored me and I will always deeply regret not taking the time to look for some pictures. Losing Eric is devastating to so many. Sending all my love to the entire Thomas family from all of us. Eric is loved by many and we stand beside you in your pain as you all try to navigate this new reality. I’m so very sorry.

“ There are so many memories that I have with Eric. Some good, some not so good. I choose to remember only the good ones. In the end, they are all that really matter. Eric gave me two of the most precious gifts...our daughters, Ryleigh and Carleigh. The first time he held each of his girls in his arms, I saw a pure love and joy in his heart. He had a purpose. He wanted so badly to be a good daddy. He tried. Eric was happiest when being a family man. He helped coach both Ryleigh and Carleigh's softball teams. He loved to play Guitar Hero with them. He absolutely loved going to Ocean City with the girls when they were younger. Those were some of our best memories. He was a kid at heart; Christmas time...he would decorate the house like a child's wonderland. (He would say it was for the kids)

My heart is broken for so many reasons but especially for our girls. They have lost the most. My heart aches for Eric's parents. No parent should lose a child. God be with you all. God rest your soul, Eric...Always, Regina
