

Kellie Cathleen Shiley

August 13, 1980 - July 16, 2012

Kellie Cathleen Thompson Shiley died surrounded by her loving friends and family on Monday July 16, 2012 at University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center from complications following the delivery of twin baby girls. She was born and raised in Annapolis, residing there until 1998, when her family moved to the Eastern Shore.

Kellie was a high school all American Lacrosse player at St Mary's High School where she was a member of the 12 year club. In 1998, she received the United States Women's Lacrosse Heather Leigh Albert award recognizing the most outstanding schoolgirl lacrosse player in spirit and as well as athletic ability. She was then inducted into the US Lacrosse Hall of Fame in Baltimore for this achievement. While at St. Mary's, she captained her team to the AIS State championship, and graduated third in her class academically as an Academic All American. In 2010, she was inducted into St Mary's Royal Blue Club Hall of Fame.

Her exceptional high school lacrosse career propelled her to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she continued to excel, serving as their Women's Lacrosse Team's Tri-Captain her Junior and Senior years, and earning International College Lacrosse Association (IWCLA) All American status in her Sophomore, Junior and Senior years. In 2001, she was a finalist for the distinguished Tewaarton Trophy for the top college female lacrosse Player. While playing for UNC, she set an NCAA tournament record of 10 points (eight goals, two assists) in a 2002 win over UMBC, a single game NCAA record that remains to this date. She remains UNC's all-time record holder for most goals in a game – eight. She was UNC's career goals (222) record holder from 1998 through 2011. She was an all ACC team member in 2001 and an all ACC Tournament team member in 2002. She was on the ACC Academic Honor Roll all four years of her College years. She graduated with a baccalaureate degree in business from the distinguished University of North Carolina Kevin Flagler School of Business in 2002.

She was a member of the United States Women's Lacrosse 2003-2004 Elite Team as they prepared for the World Cup. She was most recently employed with Pfizer as a pharmaceutical sales representative.

Kellie was an avid reader who loved the Chesapeake Bay, boating, hunting, fishing, being with her friends. She was a seriously dedicated housekeeper. She was teased that she loved to vacuum more than anything, but the true love of her life, along with her husband Ryan, was their young son, Landon. She spent countless hours engaging Landon with educational opportunities. Her greatest achievement was seeing him respond and blossom under her amazing guidance. She was so excited as she anticipated the same wonderful responses from her twin girls.

She is survived by her loving husband Ryan Paul Shiley; son Landon Neil Shiley (23 months); newborn daughters, Ryan Paige Shiley and Blake Lillian Shiley (4 days); parents Robin and Roseanne Thompson; and brother, R. Scott Thompson.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests a donation to a college fund being set up for the benefit of her children (details via the family), Anne Arundel Medical Center Mobile Blood Bank or the Anne Arundel Medical Center NICU with gratitude for their immense support of Kellie's twins during their mother's illness.

A funeral mass for Kellie will be held at St. Mary's Church in Annapolis on Monday July 23 at 9 a.m. Burial will follow at Stevensville Cemetery in Stevensville, MD. A Celebration of Life will be held on Monday at noon at the Kent Island Yacht Club, Chester, MD.

Memorial contributions may be made at www.kelliethompsonshiley.org.

Dear Ryan, Landon, Paige and Blake, Roseanne and Robin and all those who loved Kellie,

On behalf of the Preeclampsia Foundation, please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers in so many ways. Husbands all across the US who are raising their babies alone, parents who are anguished at having to bury their grown daughters and those of us at Foundation headquarters who battle this insidious disease every day -- we all understand your pain and are here for you. To listen, to answer questions, to cry with you. Preeclampsia and its variants HELLP syndrome and eclampsia are terrible, senseless disorders of pregnancy. Moms should not die bringing life into this world!!

You may find some answers at our website - www.preeclampsia.org - but you may also find yourself feeling incredibly frustrated and angry on top of the sadness and despondency. I wish I had the magic elixir for your pain. Anybody with questions should feel free to call (800-665-9341) or write us (info@preeclampsia.org).

Please just know that we stand beside you and thousands others to fight this battle every day.

*With all my love and support,

Executive Director*

Swimming, playing, teasing (Scott, Jeff, Jason and Nick), shaving our legs with Nair for the 1st time. Our family would visit and we use to sit up at night and talk and laugh in your room, listen to our parents talk and laugh by the pool when we were suppose to be sleeping. We had some really fun and great times growing up together. You were like the sister I never had. I love you and will miss you so much.*

“ To Ryan;

I just wanted to tell you how sorry I was when I learned of Kellie's passing...

Of course nothing I can say or do will fill the can ease the loss in your heart, but perhaps this quote, from a Church of England cleric, may give you some comfort...

Death is nothing at all. I have slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed, at the little joke we enjoyed together. Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect, without trace of shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant, it tis the same as it ever was, there is an unbroken continuity. What is death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner...

Words may not help right now but one day you will find yourself sitting quietly and reading how many people are praying for your family. People who care but may not know you. I pray you find comfort in knowing this. Consider them a gift from Heaven.

“ DID YOU KNOW

Did you know your mommy called you her “little buddy” And did you know that she blew you kisses and that you blew some back and made her smile

Did you know that you were beginning to talk and that you could say “I love you mommy” and she’d say “I love you too buddy” and giggle- your mommy had a cute giggle

Did you know that you would sing Twinkle Twinkle Little Star to her and that she loved it-even if you sang it 100 times

Did you know that your mommy was an amazing, beautiful, smart, loving, and wonderful person and that you are just like her-just a little smaller

*Did you know that you have your mommy’s eyes and her straight blonde hair and that good manners were important to your mommy-
so don’t forget to say please and thank you*

Did you know that from the moment you were growing in her tummy that she loved you from deep down in her heart- to this very moment thats where you are

Did you know that before mommy went to Heaven that she left you a beautiful precious gift- your baby sisters

wanted you to know*

“ Ryan and family, words can't express how sorry I am for your loss. What has happened is nothing short of a tragedy. Kellie was such a fun, caring, and loving person that was taken too soon. She will be greatly missed by all the people whose lives she touched. I will miss our monthly updates hearing about what was going on in her life and sharing stories about motherhood. I will never forget the fun times we shared. My heart breaks for Landon and the girls. But I know they will be surrounded by amazing family that will always remind them how much their mommy loved them. Let their smiles remind you of all the smiles you shared with Kellie.

Living right acrosss the street from your family we witnessed how full of life and spirit Kellie was.
