“ Mike, I truly was shocked at the tragic news about Kelly. It's amazing how time flies and I can't believe it's been more than twenty years since I saw Kelly and your mom. Kelly spent a lot of time with us and it's hard to believe those days passed so quickly. My family is so saddened over this shocking loss. Kassi and Kelly were quite a mischievous pair! Looking back, I can now laugh over some of the things that once weren't so funny to me at the time. After all, they were just kids, and I was a mischievous teen myself....so no wonder I'd get upset (I saw myself!). I want you to know we had many happy, funny, & crazy days with Kelly & the others who hung out "the Davis home". They made me feel young and I'd love to go back and do it just one more time. (I think Jeff has videos with Kelly and "the gang", we'll have to check). May God bless you, Kelly's children, and the rest of your family. I am truly sorry for your pain and grief. That's a beautiful picture of Kelly and she looks the same as she did back in the "good ol' days". We regret not knowing about this when it happened so that we may have been more of a comfort to you. Stay strong and remember that Kelly is as close as your heart.

Love,
Peggy Davis

“ I often think of Kelly and her family and am truly sad that her life has ended so early. I know she did not have it easy, but her life was purposeful and of great meaning. Kelly was always the most giving person I knew, I can only imagine how many lives she touched and how many lives she changed, even if she never knew it. My thoughts and prayers go to Lee, Michael, their loved ones and especially her beautiful children.
