“ Hi my name is Michael Owens, Kenny was more then just my boss at Eastern Petroleum ..he was my Father, My role model. I dropped to my knee's and cried...I cried in pain and in joy, I can not ride past a dead animal on the side of the road without saying" ODD PLACE TO FALL ASLEEP....Licky lacky lookie You may be gone but my dear friend you will live in me and my sons. If Kennys son or daughter read this PLEASE call me 4108052311...Bryan you might remember me.....PLEASE CALL ME...

“ To the Family:

I knew Kenny from Bladensburg High School and will always remember the fun we had. He had a twinkle in his eye and keen sense of humor and a real zest for life. And oh did he love that car he had fixed up!

May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Joan Johnson Libby##imported-end##

Kenny told me when he was a Sr in High school some kid flicked his ear on the coldest day and he turned and broke the kids nose, whenever we had a gas station to go work on in his old neighborhood he would show me where e went hunting and how it was all woods and now ruined by man.....Kenny was such a class act. I started my own business and used Kenny way of thinking..WE PUT PRIDE OVER PROFIT

Heres a few things Kenny and I shared....one day we were working at that Marina just over Bay Bridge...Kenny needed a hammer and I gave him one old hammer I had...was wooden handle...Kenny used it and got a splinter...he asked if I knew how to swim and did I like that hammer...I said YEA AND YEA...Well he threw it into the bay LOL....When ever we saw a dead animal on the side of the road...THATS IS A DUMB PLACE TO FALL A SLEEP.....APSA FU_@() LOOTLY...( Kenny s favorite thing....I miss the chicken at lunch time Momma made with just the right salt and pepper...( she always packed him a lunch and something for me. I was going thru a hard divorce and Lick was my rock....He was so proud of his kids...one was raising hunting dogs and other showed dogs and did grooming or something....He always made me wait in truck whenever we went to her shop...afraid I would become his son in law ( he had a shotgun and said LOL he might not catch me running BUT he wouldn't miss me.....Kenny was the one who told Mcnew...that gas was the way to go and Kent sold off Oil division...Kenny I look at your picture....my friend I miss you so much I know you were in pain...I am single BUT when and if I do fall in love I will be happy to share 1/2 of the love you and momma had....I will remember you telling me how your coffee was ready ever morning and how she would put your coat in dryer so when you walked outside you'd be warm..I will remember when you invited me and Michael ( now 21 and in Europe in Army )for dinner and how good Momma cooked ..you told me she'd watch a cooking show and do it that night for dinner...sorry I have soooooo much to share.....Lick I love you...I miss you...BUT my memories of you are ALL GREAT.....my son is 13 Zachary and he says he remembers you LOL I left EP way before he as born.....

“ Time is short on this Earth and then we are left with memories. Those memories I will hold in my heart and I still have a few stories to tell about the time spent at Uncle Lowell's house. Michelle, Laura, and Bryan I know these are tough times for you and we all will miss your Dad. We will be praying for you and remembering the good times that we had while Lowell was with us.##imported-begin##Wayne, Vickie, Brandon and Lindsay Warren##imported-end##

“ *I still remember when the Lucas' moved onto our little Mayo street. I thought Mr. Lucas was a movie star; I had never seen a man so tan. Always smiling.
I ran into Mr. Lucas about ten years ago and recognized him right away when he cranked that smile.
God Bless,
