

Kenneth Clarence Lucas

November 25, 1943 - November 13, 2013

Kenneth Clarence Lucas of Church Hill, MD, died Wednesday November 13, 2013, at the Wilmington VA Medical Center in Wilmington, DE. He was 69.

Born on November 25, 1943, in Wilmington, DE, the son of the late Clarence and Dorothea Conner Lucas. Ken grew up in Wilmington, DE, and was a graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School. He went on to study at Wesley College in DE, and, in 1965, would graduate from University of Arkansas with a Bachelor's of science degree in animal husbandry. In 1967, he enlisted in the Navy and served in the Vietnam War and was honorably discharged in 1970. In 1973, Ken and his family purchased a farm in Church Hill, MD, where he was a dairy farmer until 1996 and a grain farmer until present. Ken loved spending time with his family, boating, and fishing.

He is survived by his son, K. Paul Lucas and his wife, Ann of Kennedyville, MD; a daughter, Sharon Clark and her husband, David of Church Hill, MD; Heather Wright and family of Sudlersville, MD; and April Goetz and family of Greenboro, MD; three brothers, Tom Lucas of Elkton, MD, Bob Lucas of Denver, CO, and C.P. Lucas of Wilmington, DE; his uncle, Bill Conner; and five grandchildren, K.C, Elizabeth, Maranda, Zola and Ryan.

Funeral service will be held 11AM, on Tuesday, November 19, 2013, at the Price Bethany United Methodist Church in Price, MD, where family and friends may visit from 10AM -11AM.

Interment will follow in Church Hill Cemetery in Church Hill, MD.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Price Bethany United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 6, Church Hill, MD 21623.

“ Great memories of Christmas at Grandma Dunn's. We would gather in her livingroom downstairs and exchange gifts. Grandpa Jack always had the silliest gag gifts. Kenneth loved his time with his family and worked hard to make it as special for us as it was for him. Wonder what happened to all those VHS videos Uncle Bill took? I'd love to see them!
