

Kenneth Lee Phillips Sr.

July 8, 1931 - December 28, 2020

Kenneth Lee Phillips Sr. was born on July 8, 1931 in Hoopers Island, MD to the late Everett Phillips and Josephine Smith Watkins. He graduated from Hoopers Island High School class of 1948. In 1951, he joined the US Air Force and served in Hawaii, Japan, and Korea. He married Dottie Booze of Cambridge, MD on December 27th 1951. In 1958 he joined the Department of Natural Resources, Marine Police Division. He retired as a Corporal in 1986. After retiring he drove a truck for William H. Harris Seafood in Grasonville, MD. He was a member and past Supreme Representative of Knights of Pythias, life member and post Commander of the Grasonville VFW post #7464. He was a die-hard New York Yankees fan and loved working in the yard.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Phillips is survived by a son, Kenneth Lee “Sweeney” Phillips Jr. (Juanita); a daughter Sheila Guyton, five grandchildren Melissa Wetzel (Jeff), Joshua Guyton, Eric Guyton, Lacey Phillips, and Jacob Guyton, five great grandchildren Kayla Wetzel, Tristen Bright, Brenden Bright, Kylie Wetzel and Aaliyah Guyton. He is predeceased by a brother, Gilbert Phillips and a sister, Helen Brown.

A visitation will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, MD on January 5, 2021 from 2 pm - 4 pm.

Online condolences can be made at www.fhnfuneralhome.com.

“ Mrs. Dottie, Sheila and Family, please know that we are sending hugs, love and prayers for each of you. Your family has always been a part of the Clevenger family and always will be. Mr. Kenny always made sure Meemie (Betty) had her box of soft crabs! They would always be together with Meemie and PopPop at the VFW, Knights of Pythias, etc. So many wonderful memories at the post office too! Love, Tiffany Perry Brown and Family
