

Kenneth Van Wagner Jr.

February 22, 2007

Kenneth Van Wagner, Jr., 77, died on February 22, 2007 at his home after a long illness. Born in Newburgh, New York on August 26, 1929, he was the son of the late Kenneth and Frances Van Wagner. After graduating from Beacon High School he entered the U. S. Army and served from 1946 to 1949. He graduated from Union College in Schenectady, New York in 1953 with a BA degree.

Ken began his career with Allstate in Harrison, New York. The last twenty-five years of his career were spent with Computer Sciences Corporation, retiring in 1994 as Division President.

Upon retirement Ken and his wife moved to Heritage Plantation in Pawley's Island, South Carolina. Ken was a member of Heritage County Club and Precious Blood of Christ Church.

Beloved husband of fifty years, he is survived by his wife Julie, and five children; Kenneth III, and his wife, Anita of Latham, NY; William Scott and his wife, Shelly of Cookeville, TN; Robert Bruce and his wife, Julie of Athens, TN; Kristen Russell and her husband, Tim of Dallas, TX; and Karen Bonuccelli and her husband, Charles of Centreville, MD; a sister, Janet Versace of Wappingers Falls, NY; a sister-in-law, Rose Burbank, of Carolina Shores, NC. He also leaves thirteen grandchildren, Jeff, Katie, Brandon, Billy, Emily, Alison, Taylor, Sean, Jake, Sammie Jo, Anthony, Abigail and Kenneth (KC).

A memorial mass will be held at Precious Blood of Christ Church in Pawley's Island, South Carolina, on March 27th at 10 AM. Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc, 423 Thompson's Creek Road, Stevensville, MD 21666.

Arrangements are by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Centreville, MD.