“ To the Family: I am truly sorry about your family’s loss, and I want to offer my condolences. Even though death is a part of life, its not always easy for us to handle and we may sometimes find it difficult to endure, but Gods Word the Bible gives us heartwarming comfort during our times of distress, one scripture in particular that gives much needed comfort is found at Revelation 21:3,4 which in part reads: "And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.

“ I will remember Kenny mostly for his love of cats. How he loved his cats Sebastian and Emmitt. He also showed great love and concern for the many cats we had at work. I am very sorry that I will be out of town on Saturday and unable to pay my respects to the family in person - please know that at Sisk Mailing Service, Kenny was valued and appreciated for his many gifts. With deepest sympath,

Kim Sisk
