

Kevin Dale Vasbinder

October 27, 1956 - September 23, 2013

Kevin Dale Vasbinder, 56, of Queenstown, MD, died at his home on Monday, September 23.

Born on October 27, 1956, in Butler, PA, he was the son of the late Charles Allen and Jean Elsie Klein Vasbinder. Kevin graduated from Baptist Bible College and from the University of Pittsburgh. After many years in the construction business with Winchester Homes, Mid-Atlantic Builders, and Timberlake Homes, Kevin began a career as an auditor with the Comptroller's Office Compliance Division. He also volunteered his time on the Queenstown Planning Commission.

Kevin enjoyed time with his wife, Linda, and their son, Morgan, often spending hours enjoying Morgan's baseball and football games. Kevin enjoyed golf although not getting as much time on the course as he would have enjoyed. Kevin was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers Fan often displaying his Steelers banner on their balcony during football games.

He is survived by his loving wife of 21 years, Linda Irene Vasbinder; a son, Morgan Charles Vasbinder; a brother, Charles "Buddy" Vasbinder and his wife, Dean, of Butler, PA; a sister, Donna Crouch, of OR; a niece, Cherith Witters; brother in-law, Patsy Blasko; nephew, Patrick Blasko. He was preceded in death by a sister, Nancy Blasko.

A memorial service will be held at 3 pm on Saturday, October 5, at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, Maryland.

For those inclined to send flowers, the family requests perennials to plant in Kevin's memory.

“ I am so sorry to hear that Kevin passed away. My sympathy to Linda & Morgan and I will be praying for God's peace for you both at this grievous time.

Kevin & I were born in the same city, Butler, PA, and went to the same church. We were part of a group of families from that church who were having children later in life, and who were born within about a year of each other. This meant that we were not only in the same school, but in the same church youth programs and also attended our parent's social outings together.

Kevin was my first 'crush' and when my family moved away when I was 7 years old, the story is told that after the last church service before the move, I was seen kissing Kevin goodbye in front of the church – he was not pleased.

My family returned to Butler when I was 14 and attended the same church again, so Kevin and I were in the same 'social' circles. There was no romance between Kevin and I, but we were friends.

I lived in Butler until I was 23 and once in a while Kevin would be visiting his family and we would get together to discuss, first who was getting married from our group, then who was having children, then, as the years passed, who was having SECOND children.

Neither of us married 'young'. After I moved to Michigan in 1980, I don't think I ever saw Kevin again. Sometimes he would come into my mind and I would pray for him and hope that he had found someone to share his life with. I'm glad to see that he did.

I also knew Kevin from growing up in the same town and church, and knew Carol (Focht), as well. Kevin sat behind me in a (senior year?) study hall, and kept things lively in our corner of the classroom. He was constantly upbeat and funny. Such a good guy! My husband and I moved out of state when our kids were younger in the early 90's, so I've lost track of most hometown friends, but will see Kevin again someday. I'm happy to hear he had a good life, with a loving wife and son. My sympathies to his family.

I am so sorry to learn of Kevin's passing. Last night at my sons LAX game (I too married later in life) the other team had a Vasbinder player. I immediately thought it could be a relation to Kevin. At home I started searching and found Kevin's obituary listing. I'm so so sorry he left this earth and family so early in life. Kevin and I first met during his time at Pitt-we were in the same chemistry class. We became study partners and then he was my first college date. I remember preparing for that date and exactly what I wore and where he took me... such a gentleman. He was a very kind person, and will be remembered that way.

“ Kevin and I grew up together at First Baptist In Butler. My husband and I would like to offer our sympathy to Linda and Morgan. During our teen years Kevin, Sam, and I spent many good times together at my house. We can't hardly believe he is gone, But we know where he is, enjoying heaven with his loved ones who have gone before. Please know we will be praying for you during this very difficult time. We now treasure the time we had to visit with Kevin a few years ago when his Aunt Ruth passed away, He told us a lot about Morgan and how he loved having him in football. Thinking of you all with fond memories of good times gone by. With Christian Love, Sam and Debbie Broad, Butler, PA broadband @zoominternet.net
