“ Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one Kevin. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. I am writing to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from the source of truth the bible.

God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, WHATEVER HE DOES, WILL COME TO LIFE."

The nine accounts of ones in the bible who were resurrected are a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. God can bring back the billions of dead he holds within his perfect memory. John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God!

With the gift of your memories of Kevin they will bring you great joy. When a loved one becomes a memory that memory turns into a treasure.

To help with the grieving process I found three ways . Talking and writing about my feelings. Also reading the information in the bible about the resurrection.

May you and yours lean on Jehovah God for the strength you need at this sad time. (Psalms 83-18)

“ I think that this morning, as i read The Funeral homes website, i couldn't believe my eyes. My heart has nearly fell out of my chest. Although I live 900 miles away from my up bringing, Kevins passing has hit me hard. What a tremendous loss for Kent County and for anyone that knew him.

To All of Kevins family; As school kids on mrs Anna's bus, We were all so vibrant, fun, funny, full of laughs, carefree, typical children. We were fearless of the future. Although Kevin was a little more serious than me, we respected one another and had lots of laughs. On every trip back up home, Kevin would always be brought up in subject. His accolades and endeavors were always on the right path. I'm proud to say that he was my friend. He was one heck of a good man. I don't think he had many regrets in life, if any. The pain we feel in loss of a loved one, would have no meaning, if we indeed didn't feel love and compassion for that person that we lost. Our dream is that we will all be together again one day. God Bless Kevins Family. Your pain is mine too as i can imagine the magnitude of pain you are traumatized with.

“ I read with sadness of the passing of Kevin. We were in band together in school. In the days of Mr. Nick we were family. I remember his kindness and gentle spirit. He was special. My prayers are with the family as I'm sure it has left an empty spot in your hearts. May you find comfort during this time of grief.

“ Our Deepest Sympathy to Aunt Miriam & Jo Ann and family members. Kevin was a kind and sincere man and loved his family very much. So saddened he has left our Family tree but only for a short time.

Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. ~Author Unknown
