“ I worked at Chesapeake Glass & Mirror back in the late 1970's until I moved to Baltimore in 1983. I remember the boys in the shop...especially Kim. Very laid back...with a great laugh...R.I.P Kim.
Gone too young....

“ Kim and his family lived near us when the children were small. He had lost his wife and the kids were always playing with our children. They would disappear into the woods and I would call out to them.. as loud as I could.. but Kim could really project his voice much better and he could bellow our to the kids and they would soon come home. We had a small community of families. My heart and thoughts go to Allie and Mitchell. Love you guys.
