

Konrad Georg Stingl

June 15, 2000

Konrad Georg Stingl died at his residence on Thursday, June 15, 2000. He was 88.

Born on the shores of Lake Konstanz in Konstanz, Germany on January 8, 1912, he was the son of the late Anton and Maria Gutemann Stingl. Following his elementary education, he pursued an apprenticeship toward a master certificate as a pastry chef. He specialized in design, particularly spun and blown sugar creations. In 1937, he traveled to Tiensin, China to work for the renowned firm of Kiesling & Bader. It was there that he met his wife, the former Ellinor Rumpf, and they were married on April 24, 1941. He returned to Germany where he remained until WWII ended, and then he emigrated to the U.S. in 1949 on the ship, the USS Shark. The ship arrived in NY where he spent the next twenty-five years practicing his trade and teaching at the Culinary Institute in Manhattan. His accomplishments include many first place awards at exhibitions for culinary design in sugar work and a rendition of the flag raising at Iwo Jima created from a 50 pound block of chocolate, which the U.S. marine Corp commissioned him to make. In 1974, he retired and returned to Lake Konstanz in Germany until June 1999 when they moved back to the U.S. to Cordova.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four daughters, Dagmar Walters of Howell, NJ, Angelika Luginbuhl of St. Augustine, FL, Eleonore Mungiguerra of Lewisville, TX, and Susanne Nielsen of Cordova; 8 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Four brothers, Anton Stingl, Johan Stingl, Paul Stingl, and Alois Stingl, are deceased.

A celebration of his life will held at 29631 Brooks Lane, Cordova, the home of the Nielsen's, on Sunday, June 25, 2000 from 4-8 PM.

Memorial contributions may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601.

Tribute Wall

“ Konrad Georg Stingl

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Konrad Georg Stingl

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Konrad Georg Stingl

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM