“ I attended Agnes Scott College with Laramie from 1976-1980. She was utterly brilliant, incredibly kind, and crazy fun! She never sought the limelight. She was the girl you wanted to sit with in the back row making hilarious commentary. I haven't seen her since graduation, but kept in touch annually through Christmas cards. I will forever carry a piece of her in my soul. Bill, my heart breaks for you. Laramie was the sweetest morsel in the box of chocolates...you picked a winner. Incredibly sorry for your loss.

“ When we met, she was still "Miss Larsen" and then became Mrs. Wise. She had faith in me when few other teachers did. And it made a difference. A big one.
An unforgettable and formidable force.
