

Larry Ronald Coleman Sr.

March 22, 1950 - October 14, 2018

Larry Ronald Coleman, Sr. of Lynch, died on Sunday, October 14, 2018, at Kent Hospice House, in Chestertown. He was 68.

Born on March 22, 1950, in Berea, OH, he was the son of the late Walter William Coleman, Jr. and Sarah Elizabeth Rose. He moved to Maryland as a child and attended Chestertown High School. After 10th grade, he went to work farming with his late stepfather Lester Kersey. In 1969, he was drafted into the United States Army, where he served in Vietnam and after returning home went to work with Pinder's Service Co. In April of 1977, he established L.R. Coleman & Son which he owned and operated until his retirement in September of 2004.

Mr. Coleman was a member of the Betterton American Legion and Still Pond United Methodist Church. He enjoyed riding motorcycles, spending time at home with his family, gardening and caring for his animals. He also had a unique passion for fostering abandoned squirrels.

In addition to his wife, Barbara Coleman, he is survived by a son, Deke Coleman and wife Pepi of Lynch; a daughter, Barbie Glenn and husband Greg of Kennedyville; grandchildren, Riley Glenn, Conner Newsome, Hunter Coleman and Maddie Berlen; two sisters, Sally Coleman of Chestertown, and Kay Sigler of TN; a brother, Russell Kersey of Lynch; and an aunt, Sandy Joiner, and husband Mark of Tolchester. He was predeceased by three siblings, William Coleman, Terry Coleman and Robert Coleman, and stepfather John Johnson.

Services will be held privately.
