

Larry Nelson Rodney

March 27, 1941 - May 27, 2009

Larry Nelson Rodney, 68, died suddenly from a heart attack on May 27, 2009.

Nelson was the son of the late, John L. and Helen Rodney. He grew up in Rock Hall, MD. Nelson retired after 38 years of railroad service. During his railroad career, he lived in Wilmington, DE, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Cherry Hill, NJ. The favorite times of his adult life were the years he spent at his bay front home on Rock Hall, and the many years he spent playing music. For the last few years he had lived near Price's Corner, DE.

Nelson is survived by a brother, John "Jack" Rodney of Kent Island, MD; sisters, Nancy Deeb of Danbury, CT and Rebecca Rodney of Chestertown, MD; nieces, Robin Parker of Chestertown, MD, Sheri Smith of Reading, VT, Sandra Jeffries of Warwick, MD and Beverly Sporbeck of Danbury, CT; and "like-family members", Charles Henry Wilkerson of Chestertown, MD and Larry Finnan of Wilmington, DE.

Services were held privately.

Tribute Wall

“ Larry Nelson Rodney

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Larry Nelson Rodney

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Larry Nelson Rodney

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ ive know and worked with nelson since 1990 and we sure have had some good times. he and i worked for conrail in philly and in pittsburgh until he retired. he came from philly to my retirement celebration in jacksonville in 2004. i was shocked to hear of his passing. i sure will miss that funny man.##imported-begin##jim buckner##imported-end##

June 04, 2009 at 04:53 PM