“ Larry was a very good friend of my uncle. Mike Sparacino. My Uncle Mike told me stories of how they bought some cheap wine and drove to Chesapeake Beach, MD to gamble and look at the Bay and go swimming. They did all this while my grandparents (Uncle Mike's parents) Nick & Jenny Sparacino and Larry's parent's Sin & Bruno Balducci were playing cards.

They were "scally wags"! That is what Sin and Jenny called them. I saw Larry at the Firehouse, Ocean City, and we spoke briefly just after Labor Day. I will truly miss him. He was a kind man.

“ I worked with Larry for many years at a prestigious Title Company. I can honestly say that there are not too many men as kind, generous, likeable, thoughtful with a contagious sense of humor as Larry. There are many types of people that he worked with in the industry and Larry had a way to make everyone feel at ease and was a true asset to his profession. My heart is filled with sorrow upon hearing about Larry’s passing. I will miss this wonderful man. Please accept my sincere condolences and prayers on the loss of your loved one and I pray that God will comfort your heart and fill your soul with Love and Peace.
