

Lawrence Emley

December 13, 2002

Lawrence Emley of Chestertown, MD died on December 13, 2002 at Heron Point Chestertown, Maryland. He was 93.

Born in Atlantic City, New Jersey, the second son of the late William Stokes and Grace Thomas Andrews Emley.

Mr. Emley was educated in New Jersey Public Schools and was an alumnus of The College of William and Mary.

In 1937, Mr. Emley married Miriam Reeve Endicott of Ventnor New Jersey, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Allen B. Endicott Jr. Mrs. Emley predeceased her husband after many years of illness on October 31, 1996.

In 1942, Mr. Emley was commissioned to serve in the United States Navy and took part in five invasions during WWII as Lieutenant Commander. He received an honorable discharge and joined the Kiwi Polish Company Pty Ltd of Melbourne, Australia and subsequently formed Kiwi Polish Company U.S.A. He served for 26 years as president of the latter. During his term he established Kiwi Polish Company Canada in Hamilton, Ontario and Susquehanna Metal Box Company in Havre de Grace, Maryland.

In his earlier years Mr. Emley was one of a small group of men led by the late Chief Justice Owen J. Roberts who re-activated the Episcopal Church of St.

Andrews in Chester County, Pennsylvania, which had remained silent for nearly half a century. In Chester County he enjoyed being a field member of the Pickering Hunt. Upon retirement in 1974, he moved to Tryon N.C. in hopes of extending his fox hunting passion. Finally he came to live at Comegy's Bite on Quaker Neck, Chestertown, MD. During his later years in Chestertown he enjoyed sailing and volunteering his time and efforts. Mr. Emley was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church since 1978.

Mr. Emley is survived by a son, Roger D. Emley of Kansas City, Missouri; three daughters, Susan E. Luebbermann of Tucson, Arizona, Jane E. Stanton of Church Hill, Maryland, and Jenifer E. Endicott of Church Hill, Maryland; four grandchildren, David Emley, Andrew Emley, Samuel Stanton, and Michael Stanton and one great granddaughter, Ashton Grace Emley. He is also survived by a companion, Jessie Lockwood Vaughan of Chestertown, MD.

Graveside memorial services will be held on Saturday, December 21, 2002 at 11:00 A.M. at St. Paul's Episcopal Cemetery. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 7579 Sandy Bottom Road, Chestertown, Maryland 21620. Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 130 Speer Rd., Chestertown, Maryland 21620.
