“ Mrs. Bardelman, I am so sorry to hear of Mr. Bardelman's passing. I remember spending many an afternoon at your home in Olney with MaryLee. I will always remember Lee's "loud" voice :) and how much he loved the Baltimore Colts!

Take care, my prayers and love are with you and the rest of the family.

“ All of the Corbetts (Olney MD neighbors) share your grief at Lee's passing but celebrate with very fond remembrances his vibrant love of life. He often visited our granddaughters when they lived with us next door to you in Olney. They remember him crossing over to say hello and make sure that were having fun in the creek and on their swings. The older generation also remember his many kindnesses and cheerful greetings.

“ When I heard of Uncle Lee's passing I felt like it was our Dad passing all over again.....looking at your Dad made me feel like our Dad was still alive in some way.
May you all find peace in knowing that he is now with many of our loved ones who have gone before him and that they together will be waiting for us.....

Your cousin, Anne (Marie)

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. My dearest condolences to the Bardelman family. Sometimes gentle words can do so much to soften the intense sadness when a dear loved one dies. God's word acknowledges that our heart can be "broken and crushed." (Ps.
51:17). But even in severe situations, God can bring relief to a stricken heart if we pray to him in full faith and observe his commandments. May the God of comfort soothe your families aching hearts as the days progress.
