“ I just came across this page and the page for Jean. They were simply delightful people. A great memory: While my parents and I were dining with Jean, Len and Stephen (my beau at the time), my dad started fiddling around with a BB gun that was against the wall. Next thing we knew, my dad had triggered the gun and blown out a window. Len just looked at my dad in shock -- we then all shared an uproarious laugh. They remained friends even before my dad paid for damages.

Peace to your spirit and Jean's.

“ met Lenny through my friend Ron Noce and had the pleasure of golfing with him many times. I was amazed at the swing he could still put on the ball being twice my age. The first time we played together we came to the first par 3 and he got a par... I got a six. I was always a little extra excited to play when I knew he was coming with us and really enjoyed his company. I remember it really made my day running into him at the grocery store one day as well. I will be having a beer tonight in his memory and will pour one out for him as well. Sorry for your loss he was a great guy.

“ My condolence to Lenny's family, sons and grand kids. Lenny was a golfing buddy of mine and I will miss playing with him. We had a load of fun especially at the 19th hole. I enjoyed his company and love of family and life. I'll miss him!

“ We will miss Rampa. His witt, the frequent laughter so much we laughed until it hurt and we could not stop the laughter , the wonderful stories about England, travel with Jean, the fun times at dinner, 31 card games, and eating cake. The many jokes and reminiscing about life with Jean. Looking over old photos and hearing the stories about his parents and how he first met Jean. We listened, We loved and we cared whole heartedly. We video taped your stories about your life as you told them. We memorized your number in the Army like you still knew it at 93. We will cherish all those memories.. An incredible life he had as he triumphed from hardship of the war in London and as a child endured so much. A truly inspiring story of immigrating to the USA and becoming successful living the American dream. We loved all the trips to see you and Jean in Myrtle Beach and it will never be the same without you. We also want to mention Kathleen and all the wonderful times you had with her and her care and utmost friendship that carried you through these past 14 years. We are so grateful for her.. What an incredible life! We love you Rampa. Thank you for being you and being a wonderful Grandfather to the girls and Jordan. We cherish it all forever.

“ I loved everything about this wonderful man. He was like the father to me, he never missed sending a card for my birthday or our anniversary. For over 27 years that I have known this man, he has always been kind, humble, a true gentleman with a great sense of humor and not a mean bone in his body. Most of all his smile was so beautiful and warming. He truly has a piece of my heart, I love and miss you Dad
