“ Wallace loved being with nature making his living in the seafood industry. An astute business man, he did well for himself yet enjoyed being on the water whenever possible. I remember his quick wit and dry sense of humor. A modest person but generous and giving. Wallace was one of 43 grandchildren of Levi Francis Harrison and Mary Elizabeth Williams and was one of the last three living grandchildren. He will be missed on the water front and his memory will be a drift on any empty boat or skipjack. Our condolences to his three daughters and grandchildren.
