“ To the Family and Friends of Lester William Metzinger, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one “Bill“. Please accept my sincere condolences, in Isaiah 25:8,9 it says “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. And in that day one will certainly say: “Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.” So, we can see from this scripture that soon Jehovah God himself will not only swallow up death forever, but he will also remove the pain that goes along with losing a loved one. May this scripture comfort you and give you a great hope for the future.##imported-begin##ms. brown##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of "Bill" Metzinger, please accept my sincere condolences in your time of sorrow. May the following words from God's Word offer you a measure of comfort and hope for the future: At John 5:28, 29, Jesus reveals, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Until this time, may this scriptural hope for the future serve to comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead.

Sorrowfully submitted, Ms. Weston##imported-begin##"Bea"
