“ I was Jim’s adopted daughter during his first marriage and recently learned of his passing. Years ago I lived on the Eastern Shore as well and occasionally wondered how he was doing. Though our lives went separate ways long ago, that time remains part of my story. My condolences to his family.

“ We had lots of good times when we worked at Easton Middle School in the 1970's. Jim was our son Dan's godfather. (Dan is now 40). Jim had a way with making you feel joyful when things were not going well. He had a smile for everyone.
