

Levy Campos III

July 19, 1988 - April 30, 2016

Levy Campos III of Stevensville, MD, died Saturday April 30, 2016, due to an automobile accident.

He was 27.

Born July 19, 1988, in Clinton, MD, he was the son of Levy Campos, Jr., of Indian Head, MD, and Robin Troiano of Stevensville, MD.

Levy attended Henry E. Lackey High School, and worked as an electrician for Local 26. Levy made friends everywhere he went and lived in Indian Head, Laurel, and Stevensville. He loved making others laugh, helping whenever he could, spending time with family and friends, cooking (especially barbecuing), and creating metal sculptures.

In addition to his parents, Levy is survived by his sister, Erika Enright and her husband Jeremy of Arlington, VA; niece and goddaughter, Aria Enright; stepfather, Steve Medve; maternal grandfather, Robert Troiano Sr., of Hagerstown, MD; and paternal grandmother, Maria Van Heusen of Englewood, FL.

There will be an entombment at Levy's final resting place at 11 AM, on Tuesday, May 3, 2016, at Bestgate Memorial Park, Annapolis, MD. There will be a reception after the funeral at neighboring Lasting Tributes Funeral Home,

Annapolis, MD. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Levy's funeral expenses on GoFundMe at gofundme.com/levycampos.
