

Lillian Stella Hoch

December 16, 1925 - January 24, 2024

Lillian Hoch (née Fialkowski), 98, of Easton, MD died at Homestead Manor in Denton on January 24, 2024.

Lillian was born in Baltimore, MD on December 16, 1925; the second oldest of eleven children born to Anthony and Mary Fialkowski.

Lillian married Henry Hoch and together with their two daughters, made homes in Baltimore, Pasadena, and Glen Burnie. Over the course of their beautiful 54 year marriage, Lillian and Henry enjoyed dancing (especially Polka!), traveling, entertaining and cooking for family and friends.

Lillian worked at Montgomery Ward for 33 years. After retiring, she and Henry moved to Easton in 1987. Living in Easton gave them many opportunities for volunteering. Some of her favorites were working with Art LeMay at the Waterfowl Festival each year, the Delmarva Blood Bank, and Meals On Wheels. Lillian also enjoyed working as an election judge for Talbot County.

Besides her parents, Lillian is predeceased by her husband, Henry; daughter, Elizabeth Rottman; grandson, Donald C. Rottman, III; three sisters; three brothers; and son-in-law, Richard Douma, Sr.

She is survived by her daughter, Gloria Douma; son-in-law, Donald C.

Rottman, Jr.; grandchildren, Robert Rottman (Michal), Amy Yost (Dale Foster), Jen Noll (Robert), Richard Douma, Jr. (Ann), and Christine McCorkle (Peter); great-grandchildren, Victoria Turner (Matt), Henry and William Rottman, Grace and Grant Yost, Prescott, Oliver, Truman, and Eleanor Noll, Alex and Katie Douma, Logan and Amanda Kappus, and Mason and Nolan McCorkle; sister, Bernadine Schmidt (Joseph); brother, George Fialkowski (Carol); and many adoring nieces and nephews.

A funeral service to celebrate Lillian's life will be held Monday, February 5, 2024, 11:00 am at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 100 Peachblossom Road, Easton, MD.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 100 Peachblossom Road, Easton, MD. Please note the direction of contribution to either the Fishes & Loaves Ministry or the Soup Kitchen Ministry.
