“ I was sorry to read you had death in your family. Those we love are always with us their laughter and their wisdom, their advice and thoughtfulness are gifts of love that are ours to keep. Although I have never met the family I pray the tender mercy that God has always shown be with you now so you will know that you are not alone and may the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength and comfort and courage each day. Soon He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces Isaiah 25:8###imported-begin##kathy##imported-end##

“ *Debbie,
I did not know your mother but from reading about her spirited christian life, I can see how you reflect that Christ like love thru Jesus to your students at Chesapeake Christian school. My wife and I will pray for you and your family. God Bless You.##imported-begin##ken Evans##imported-end##*

“ *Dear Darlene & Debbie & Family,
What a wonderful example your mother showed us all of how a christian woman should be. Her quick wit and beautiful smile will be missed by all who knew her. She would always be asking about how I was doing when we were walking together with our walkers. I am so glad she is now walking with our Lord without a walker. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Gary and Linda Cecil##imported-begin##Linda & Gary Cecil##imported-end##*
