“ Larry: Unfortunately, Susan and I will not be able to come to the viewing, but we wanted to share our deepest sympathies for your loss. Linda never allowed her disease struggles interfere with her joy for life. She always had a smile on her face and was an inspiration for many people. Your devotion to her over the years is admirable and I know you will miss her dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Larry, Inge, Susan, Michael and Lori, Linda was such a great friend to me, for so many years! She was still a little girl when we met and started this long lasting friendship, which just kept going and going. She never forgot my birthday and 2 days ago I received a postcard from her last trip! How can she now be gone? Our deepest sympathies to the entire family! You are in our thoughts and prayers!
With loving and caring thoughts, Uschi and Lothar

“ Larry,

Betty and I are sad and send you our deepest sympathies to you and your family. We felt very bad when we heard the news of Linda's illness and later her death from the Barb Reynolds. Linda was a very brave person and we were impressed with her dealing with her illness as she did for all these years. Take care my friend and will pray for you in this tough time.

“ To Linda, my forever friend of 58 years,

I remember happily our times together as children: going to Ideal Candies (Nick's) and buying $.07 popsicles; our playing dress up, with you in those fabulous turquoise hi-heels; our summers playing with paper dolls and Barbie dolls; your parents taking us to the drive-in to see "Gidget"; our times playing in your Oma Jacobs' HUGE front yard; and our sitting under that clothes-staining, purple tree in your back yard and eating berries and clover. Even after you moved to Maryland we were able to keep in touch through your trips back to Chicago and the telephone. (Michael and Larry used to tease us about our "ratchet-jaws"!)

You had the most beautiful, flowing penmanship; you wrapped packages with flair; you were the only person I know who had a flamingo tree at Christmas; you remembered birthdays, anniversaries, special days; you were a faithful correspondent; and you were the sister I never had. You were sentimental, brave, generous, thoughtful, positive, expressive, strong, fun-loving and adventurous. (When we visited the Willis Tower in Chicago, you boldly went out on that glass-enclosed ledge, 103 stories above the ground, and beckoned the rest of us to join you!)

Most of all, Linda, you had a gift of expressing your feelings so lovingly and freely to me about our bond. I regret very much I did not have that ability. I wish that I had told you or showed you more often how truly grateful I was to have you in my life and how lucky I felt to have your friendship. You were such a loving, and loveable, friend. I will miss you so, so much, kiddo.

*Love you,
Jo*

“ Our sympathy and comfort go out to cousin Larry who has lost his best friend of over forty years. Linda was the bravest and possibly the most "positive" women we have ever known. May she rest in peace and may Larry be comforted in knowing how loved and respected she was by all who she touched".

“ I first met Linda at her wedding. Larry and my husband, Mike were Phone Guys. Our friendship seemed instant. Linda is a real girls girl. We shared many many happy times together. I so admired my friend Linda, she is smart, beautiful, thoughtful, always dressed beautifully throughout her life, even while in the hospital! Love You Linda. Love to you Larry.

Linda and I met when we were 18 years old, while attending The Washington School for Secretaries in Washington DC. We became best friends immediately. After graduation in 1970, we both landed our first "real" jobs in the business world...finally "real" paychecks! LOL! We both bought new cars then moved into our first apartment together...two wild and crazy ladies, sitting on top of the world. Unfortunately, our paths eventually split and we lost contact with each other for many years. Then lo and behold, because of FB, we reconnected several years ago. We met for lunch and that afternoon, we ate and laughed and giggled and remembered when. It was like time had never passed. I love you, Linda; and I am so incredibly blessed that we were able to see each other again. My condolences go out to Larry and Linda's surviving family (she's with her Dad now). I pray that God will comfort you during this incredible time of loss. We were all blessed to have her in our lives. With Love in Christ, Bonnie Neilson Austin XO<><

“ Sad, sad day. Although we have known Linda for a short time, we felt that we have been friends with her and Larry forever. We are going to miss her beautiful smile on that beautiful face, her humor and great company. We will miss her each and every day. Good by our dear friend and see you on the other side some day - until then - may God and his angels hold you in their arms and you dance like you never danced before.

God bless Larry and family.
