Linda Dianne (Ragland) Regenhardt died October 22, 2017, while on a cruise ship off the coast of Spain.

Born November 24, 1946, to Edith Drumheller Ragland and Gerald Forest Ragland, Linda grew up in Nottoway County, VA. Following graduation from business college, she worked in the U.S. Senate as a secretary to Senator Harry Byrd.

After several family moves due to her husband, Don's Air Force assignments, she returned to the Washington, DC, area where she resumed her education, graduating from Northern Virginia Community College (1982), George Mason University (1984), and Georgetown Law School (1987). Later she earned a degree from George Washington University in mediation and advanced dispute resolution and became a member of the American Arbitration Association. Linda practiced as an attorney from 1987 until her retirement in 2017, specializing in civil litigation, bankruptcy, and mediation. She worked for several firms in both Washington, DC, and Virginia before establishing her own practice.

In the early 2000s, Linda developed an interest in painting that led to opening the White Squirrel Gallery in Queenstown, MD, with her sister, Nancy Thomas. She also served on the Vestry of Wye Parish in Wye Mills, MD.

She is survived by her husband of 49 years, John Donald Regenhardt; siblings, Gerald Ragland, Nancy Thomas, and Cynthia Ragland; children, Susan Soffici, Tim Regenhardt, Kari Regenhardt, and Christy Regenhardt; and four grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at the Naval Academy Chapel on November 8, 2017, at 11 a.m. followed by a reception at the Naval Academy Club.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to Wye Parish, P.O. Box 98, Wye Mills, MD 21679 or Doctors Without Borders USA, P.O. Box 5030, Hagerstown, MD 21741-5030.
