

Linda Sue Schwaitzberg

May 27, 1940 - May 8, 2024

Linda (Neel) Schwaitzberg, 83, passed away on May 8, 2024 in the compassionate care of Cater To You Assisted Living in Chestertown. Linda was born May 27, 1940 in Wytheville, VA and spent her youth in her hometown of Ceres until she left to attend Radford College.

Linda spent over 20 years in Annapolis, with the love of her life Carl. There she found a home for her faith at St Andrews Methodist Church and loved singing in the choir with her daughter, Dianna.

After relocating to Worton, MD she attended Christ United Methodist Church in Chestertown and upon her retirement in 2008 volunteered at the Kent County Food Pantry and the Eastern Neck Wildlife Refuge.

She adored dogs and shared her home with her special Irish Setter, Samoyeds, a rescue Poodle, and her cherished Westie, Skye. She also enjoyed crocheting, watching wildlife shows and listening to music.

Everyone who met “Ms. Linda”, as she was affectionately known, loved her. She was quiet and usually smiling. She enjoyed listening to people talk more than speaking, and quipped that she surrounded herself with people she found to be smarter so she would always have something to learn. This was her unassuming nature. She possessed an ability to sense, and offer help, to those who needed support.

Linda was preceded in death by her loving parents, Richard & Berniece (Duncan) Neel, the daughter she adored, Dianna Dillman, and her beloved husband, Carl Schwaitzberg. She is survived and is dearly missed by her cousin Becky Kimberlin, extended relatives, her god-daughter Erika (Rayfield), her extended families the Hatfields, the Grosses the Wilberts and friends. Private services will be held.
