

Linda Diane White

September 18, 1952 - December 20, 2020

Linda Diane White passed away on December 20, 2020, in Centreville, MD. She was 68 years young.

Born on September 18, 1952, in Baltimore, MD, Linda was the daughter of the late Asa and Emma Arrowwood Murphy. After graduating high school and getting her cosmetology license, Linda worked as a hairdresser. She was an active member of Parkside United Methodist Church where she taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School for many years. She always enjoyed baking and made the most delicious cakes, cookies, and pies for her family. She was passionate about animals and liked to vacation in Ocean City, MD, and Gettysburg, PA.

Linda is survived by her daughter Sarah (DJ) Lissau of Centreville, MD. She was predeceased by her husband, Michael White, in 2016; and by her brother, Jerry Murphy.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the National MS Society.

“ Linda was always so kind to my Aunt Helon and Unkle Gary White. She visited them often and grocery shopped for them. I always have thought of her as a kind and loving person.

“ Linda was a very sweet best friend of mine. We loved each other very much. We went on adventures of bike riding through the neighborhoods. And many other childhood fun things including singing to the neighbors. She wrote a song "Under the Gum Drop Tree". I loved her like a little sister. I will always love her. I will miss her very much. My condolences to her daughter Sarah Emmalyn and her Family.

*Love Always,
Aunt Sandy*

My dearest friend. I too will miss her. Linda was loved by all and will be greatly missed, and her greatest joy in life was being a mother to Sara who made her so proud.
