LINDA C. MCQUEENEY

STEVENSVILLE, MD: Linda C. McQueeney of Stevensville, MD died Monday, April 10, 2006 from pulmonary hypertension at Anne Arundel Medical Center, Annapolis, MD. She was 55.

Born on May 28, 1950 in Washington, DC, the daughter of the late Virginia Nunnelly and Richard Crawford. Ms. McQueeney grew up in Lanham, MD. After graduating from Duval high school, she began her career at Channel 20. She then worked for Denninberg Advertising and as the assistant to the general manager at WMAL. She briefly worked as station manager at Channel 50, leaving to become the east coast events coordinator for Ernst & Young, working there seven years until she became disabled. Ms. McQueeney enjoyed cooking, reading and crocheting. She loved to travel, especially to Italy. She was also a movies buff and enjoyed entertaining her family and friends.

She is survived by a son, John T. McQueeney, III and his wife Dana of Stevensville, MD; a sister, Carol Romer and her husband David, of Gaithersburg, MD; a brother Richard Crawford and his wife Elaine, of Virginia Beach, VA; three grandchildren, John T. IV, Danny and Gracie McQueeney; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to: Pulmonary Hypertension Association, 801 Roeder Road, Suite 400, Silver Spring, MD 20910 (www.phassociation.org).
