

Linda K. Parson

July 24, 1944 - January 2, 2010

Linda Parson passed away on Saturday, Jan. 2, 2010. She was 65.

Born July 24, 1944 in Huntingdon Valley, PA, she was the daughter of Arnold and Louise Krebs. Linda graduated Lower Moreland HS and then went on to attend Endicott College. Upon graduation, she worked in Philadelphia, where she met her husband, the late John Ridley Parson. They moved to Peterborough, Ontario for twenty years before returning to the States. Lake Orion, MI and Beaumont, TX were both home until retirement brought them to Easton in 2004.

Mrs. Parson was a devoutly spiritual Episcopalian and was very active in the parish life of Christ Church of Easton, as she had been in all her previous parishes, notably in Beaumont where she helped run St. Mark's resale shop, The Treasure House. She also volunteered her time with the local Democratic party.

She was an exceptional gardener and gourmet cook, and utilized both skills together to feed the friends and family she entertained over the years.

She is survived by her son Ridley (Matt) Parson of Brooklyn, NY; her daughter Victoria Smith and her husband Odin of Harper's Ferry, WV; her brother, Ron; her 98 year-old mother Louise and four beloved grandchildren: Odin, Sonora, Gaby and Santiago Smith.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, January 6th at 3:00pm at Christ Church of Easton
