“ Pop, you weren't just my grandfather your were my idol, my hero, the person I always looked up to. All my life I wished I could be half the man you were. You were the axis the whole family orbited around. This world won't be the same without you. Family get togethers without you sitting on the swing bitching about something are going to be odd, and empty. I love you old man and I'm going to miss you. I cant get your face out of my head it hurts that you are gone. But in the words of a man that I will never forget "do them before they do you". I'm going to put my smile on and be tough because that's exactly what you would do.

“ I wanted to say something about Mr. Lloyd, but was at a loss as to what to say. Driving home today, I was thinking about him in the presence of our Lord. I was thinking about his family and asking for comfort and peace to surround them. Thinking on these things, an overwhelming gratitude filled my heart for the way the Lord brings so many different people with so many different gifts together to form His body; to fulfil His purposes. I was feeling so thankful for Mr. Loyd- for his example of faithfulness and for his fulfilling of his purpose in the body for his appointed time. He greeted us all every Sunday, making us feel welcome and valued. Not one person got by Him without a 'hello', a handshake, and/or a bulletin. He will be missed.
