

Lois Southard Gise

September 7, 1920 - January 23, 2019

Lois Southard Gise of Centreville, MD, passed away peacefully at her home on January 23, 2019. She was 98.

Born on a houseboat in Bellmore, NY, she was the daughter of the late Arthur and Florence Horn Southard. She was a 1938 graduate from Stevensville High School, and also from business school in Baltimore. On December 17, 1948, she married Robert G. Gise at St. Luke's Parish in Queenstown, MD. Mr. and Mrs. Gise made their home on Brookside Farm in Queenstown before moving to Centreville. She was a member of the Queenstown Homemakers Club and Old Wye Parish in Wye Mills, MD.

Mrs. Gise is survived by her son, Glenn A. Gise (Mary) of Phoenix, MD; daughters, Sally G. Rosenberry of Centreville, MD, and Adele Quatmann (David) of Avondale, PA; five grandchildren, Kimberly Rosenberry, Joel Gise, Andrea Gise Knowlton, Mackenzie Quatmann and Keegan Quatmann; five great-grandchildren; and Jonathan Turner, who was like a grandson to her. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert G. Gise in 2008.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, January 29 at the Old Wye Parish in Wye Mills, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 10:30 am. Burial will follow at the Old Wye Parish Cemetery.

If friends wish to send memorial donations, the family suggests sending them to Compass Regional Hospice, 160 Coursevall Dr., Centreville, MD 21617 or at www.compassregionalhospice.org; or the Animal Welfare League Queen Anne's County, 201 Clay Dr., Queenstown, MD 21658 or at www.awlqac.org.

“ My prayers going out to her family. I will always have fond memories of Mrs Gise as the warm comforting cheerful smiling Mom of Adele who would do anything for her kids. She lived a bountiful life with so much love and was a good friend to my German relatives. I will forever ride by that house on Old Queenstown Rd and think of her and knowing she is home. Adele and David have a special place in my heart and I'm praying for your comfort and solace at this time.
