

Lois Margaret Malaby

October 9, 1928 - January 28, 2018

Lois Margaret Malaby, of Bridgeville, DE, formerly of Cambridge, MD, died on January 28, 2018, on what would have been her 68th wedding anniversary.

Born on October 9, 1928, in Philadelphia, PA, she was the daughter of the late Frederick and Margaret Shell Thomas. On January 28, 1950, she married Royce Clifton Malaby, and the couple made their home in Philadelphia, moving to Cambridge in 1965, where they raised their five children. As her children grew, Mrs. Malaby worked first at Dr. Bowman's medical office, then at Leggett's, and finally at Thorn Valley Jewelers. She was a dedicated Girl Scout Troop Leader and an active member of St. Mary, Refuge of Sinners Catholic Church.

She is survived by her daughters, Ellen Denny of Queenstown, MD, and Jane Bailey of Greenwood, DE; sons, Thomas Malaby and Robert Malaby, both of Salisbury; 11 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren with another expected in March 2018; and a beloved caretaker and dear friend, Crystal Choplick. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Royce Clifton Malaby; a daughter, Marjorie Ann Haller; a brother, William Thomas; and a grandson, Gregory Haller.

A funeral liturgy will be celebrated at 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 1 at St. Mary, Refuge of Sinners Catholic Church in Cambridge, MD. Burial will follow at Dorchester Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, her family requests emorial contributions to VITAS Healthcare, 20773 Professional Park Blvd., Georgetown, DE 19947.

“ would like to extend my condolences to your family. Mrs. Malaby was clearly a good, kind and loving woman that will be greatly missed by those in her life. It is obvious she lived a life filled with love. May you take comfort in the Bible's promise at Revelations 21:4 that there will come a day when, God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". When that time comes, sad times such as these will be a thing of the past.
