“ My memories of my “sister” began when she was a H.S. Junior and I was 11. She and Jack were dating and knew they’d found “the one”. She had me over to spend the night. We played music and baked brownies. A lovely and lasting memory. We’ve had many more over the years, but not really enough. The Dallas trip, the Thanksgiving visits, our kids when they were little. The pony, the pool, the water aerobics. She was my partner in shopping and swimming in Aventura. She was always admired for her strength, courage and loyalty. Many fond memories. But there are never enough. By for now, Sis. Love. See you later.
To her boys and all their families,
You were truly blessed to have both Jack and Lois-as parents.
Remember to be thankful, and pass it on. Love you all!

“ When the boys and I visited Aunt Lois & Uncle Jack in Florida one summer, she was the consummate hostess. Not only did she get the kids to bake cookies (which they refused to do with me), she made every little thing feel special.

We'll always remember you for your grace and generosity. You've left a giant Lois-shaped hole in our hearts. - Love Kelly, Quinn & PK
