“ Lois was my neighbor on Autumn Lane for about 6 years. I loved seeing her, as she always had a smile that lit up her beautiful face. When they moved to Stevensville I missed her terribly. I sometimes took her Hydrangeas from my garden as she admired them even before we moved here. God Bless and keep you. You were a treasure.

“ Aunt Lois was incredibly kind and supportive to me the very first time I met her 42 years ago. She was very smart, very kind and a woman way beyond her time, a pioneer. I will miss you Lois. Peace be with you eternally. PS. Very, very funny lady.
