

Lois Salmon Duffey

November 5, 2007

Lois Salmon Duffey, of Centreville and Chestertown, died November 5, 2007. She was born November 22, 1910 in New York City, the daughter of the late, Walter J. and Lois May Salmon. Mrs. Duffey and her late husband, Harry, moved to Centreville from Virginia in 1946.

Their love of community led them to a commitment to many projects, some visionary that became reality, to benefit others. They were also enthusiastic horse owners and enjoyed successful steeplechase racing in the United States and the U.K. The highlight of her racing career was when Mrs. Duffey's "Mr. Frisk" won the 1990 Aintree Grand National.

Mrs. Duffey is survived by her daughter, Amanda Rutledge and her husband, James, of Old Lyme, CT, and her son, Harry "Stoney" and his wife, Virginia, of Centreville; grandchildren, Peter L. Rutledge, Sarah R. Krimmel, Catherine D. MacGlashan, Patricia D. Parkhurst, and Diana D. Pedinielli, and ten great grandchildren. She was predeceased by a grandson, Andrew J. Rutledge.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 10th at 11:00 A.M. at St. Paul's Parish, Centreville, MD.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to a charity of your choice.
