Loren Hiram Conner

Loren H. Conner of Centreville died on April 17, 2001 at Corsica Hills Nursing Home. He was 89.

Born on November 23, 1911 in Cooperstown, ND, he was one of thirteen children of the late Edwin Ellsworth and Rene Hazel (Carpenter) Conner. He attended school in Cass County, ND, and on March 23, 1940 he married the former Violet Madelyn Willert. He began farming in North Dakota, and later moved east to work as a farm manager and cattle rancher at various farms in MD, VA and PA until retiring in 1977. Prior to and after retiring, he was active in 4H, and loved gardening and the outdoors. He moved to Ingleside and later to Centreville. He was a member of the Ingleside United Methodist Church. His wife predeceased him on January 28, 2000.

Mr. Conner is survived by two sons, Barry Conner of Worton, MD and Gene Conner of Falling Waters, WV; three daughters, Rebecca Wright of Cambridge, Beth Delaney of El Cirrito, CA and Linda Backstrom of Clay City, IL; two sisters, Mildred Burley of Finksburg and Ora Jean Wilhelm of ND; and numerous grandchildren.

Services will be 1:00 PM Saturday April 21 at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam

Funeral Home, P.A., Centreville, where family and friends may call one hour prior to the service. Burial will be at St. James Cemetery, Worton.

Memorial contributions may be made to the John's Hopkins Children's Center, 600 N. Wolfe Street Baltimore, MD 21287 or the American Diabetes Association, 114 Baptist Street Salisbury, MD 21801.
